Office Action Summary	Application No. 10/797,339	Applicant(s) PENG ET AL.
	Examiner Ngan Ngo	Art Unit 2814

-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --

Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

The election filed July 26, 2004 has been entered and made of record as paper no. 0704.

Applicant's election of claims 1-22 in the reply filed on July 26, 2004 is acknowledged. Because applicant did not distinctly and specifically point out the supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election has been treated as an election without traverse (MPEP § 818.03(a)).

The specification has not been checked to the extent necessary to determine the presence of all possible minor errors. Applicant's cooperation is requested in correcting any errors of which applicant may become aware in the specification.

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-4, 6, 7, 10-12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by McIntosh et al.

McIntosh disclose a light emitting diode emitting of white or desire color comprising a substrate (15), an epitaxial layer comprising a first-type cladding layer (13a), a first active layer (12a), a second active layer (12b), a second-type cladding layer (13b), a first electrode (16a), and a second electrode (16b).

In re claim 2, McIntosh discloses a transition active layer (11b) between the first and the second active layers.

In re claim 4, McIntosh discloses a buffer layer (14) between the substrate and the first-type cladding layer

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 5, 8, 9, 13-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over McIntosh in view of Edmond et al.

McIntosh discloses all the subject matter claimed except for the current spreading layer. Edmond discloses a light emitting diode having a current spreading layer (27) formed between the second electrode (26) and the cladding layer (12) to provide a contact between the second electrode and the cladding layer. Therefore, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to form a current spreading layer in McIntosh in order to provide an ohmic contact between the electrode and the cladding layer as taught by Edmond et al

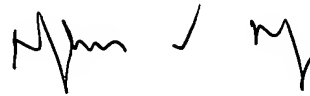

Claims 21 and 22 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

The other reference is cited to show other structure pertinent to Applicants' disclosure.
